

OCG Website Privacy Policy: General Data Protection Information for OCG Members

Information stored on the website can include members' names, email and social media addresses, images of the member and their work, a biography, and phone number.

None of this information is required by the OCG for website purposes. Members only provide this information if they want it to appear on the website and populate their personal web pages.

When collected, this information is only used for that purpose on the website.

Essentially, anything entered when setting-up a Member's/Maker's Page is displayed on the website and will be in the public domain.

Further, anything entered can be removed or modified by the member at any time: simply log onto the Members Section, enter username and password, navigate to your page and click on Edit at the bottom of the page.

Passwords to access Member Pages are masked (hashed) and inaccessible.

Our website does not collect information about you in any form from members of the public.

No other personal information is stored on the site.

IP addresses are collected on the server for the sole purpose of tracking any load, or problems with the site.

IP addresses are collected for Google analytics to keep track of the use of the web-site.

Your information will remain on the website until your membership expires or you request it to be removed or you remove it.

Assistance with this and the related website is available through web@ocg.co.uk
